Cookie Policy

Last updated: September 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how Precise Eco Plumbing and Heating Ltd ("Precise Eco", "we", "us" or "our") uses cookies and similar technologies on our website.

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that may be stored on your computer, tablet or mobile device when you visit a website.

They can be used for a variety of purposes, including helping websites function correctly, remembering preferences, understanding how visitors use a website and improving website performance.

2. How we use cookies

Our website may use cookies and similar technologies for the following purposes:

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are required for the website to operate correctly and securely.

They may support basic website functionality, security and technical operation.

These cookies do not normally require your consent where they are strictly necessary to provide a service you have requested.

Performance and analytics cookies

Where enabled, we may use analytics technologies to help us understand how visitors use our website.

This may include information such as:

- Which pages are visited
- How visitors navigate the website
- Approximate geographical information
- Browser and device information
- General website performance information

Analytics information helps us understand which areas of the website are useful and identify opportunities to improve it.

Analytics cookies will only be used where the appropriate consent has been obtained.

Third-party cookies

Some services incorporated into our website may place cookies or access information on your device.

These may include services provided by third parties such as website analytics, embedded media, maps or other online services.

Where applicable, these third parties may process information in accordance with their own privacy and cookie policies.

3. Managing cookies

You can control or delete cookies through your browser settings.

You can also choose whether to accept certain categories of non-essential cookies where a cookie consent mechanism is provided on our website.

Please be aware that disabling some cookies may affect how certain parts of the website function.

4. Changes to our use of cookies

Our use of cookies may change as the website develops and new functionality or services are introduced.

If we introduce additional non-essential cookies or similar technologies, we will update this Cookie Policy and, where required, obtain your consent before they are used.

5. More information

For further information about cookies and online privacy, you can visit the Information Commissioner's Office website.
